U.S. Probation Officer Action:

At the time of the citation, Mr. Rodriguez was being supervised on the Low Intensity Caseload and had minimal reporting with the probation office. Since obtaining the citation, Mr. Rodriguez has been moved back to a general caseload and has regular contact with an officer. Mr. Rodriguez reported the incident to his supervising officer on September 25, 2022, and advised he was involved in a motor vehicle stop but did not receive any tickets. However, on March 10, 2023, Mr. Rodriguez called this officer and advised that he was just made aware that a warrant was issued and that he was advised by his attorney to make a full payment towards the fine. Mr. Rodriguez has provided this office with a copy of the money order sent to the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in the amount of $264.85 dated March 17, 2023, to satisfy a monetary penalty.

With regard to the illegal drug use, Mr. Rodriguez was verbally reprimanded and reminded that marijuana continues to be federally illegal. Mr. Rodriguez advised that he understood. This office will continue to monitor Mr. Rodriguez through random urine screens and advise the Court of further noncompliance.

At this time, we are respectfully recommending no further action against Mr. Rodriguez.

Respectfully submitted,

SUSAN M. SMALLEY, Chief
U.S. Probation Officer
